

Who does what

EU matters dealt with at the Congress of Deputies include a range of activities that, in turn, fall within the remit of different parliamentary bodies. The following table is intended to clarify the various channels:

Role	Congress of Deputies	Senate
Authorising Treaties	Plenary Where applicable, the Foreign Affairs Committee	Plenary Where applicable, the Foreign Affairs Committee
Transposing directives that require adoption or amendment to laws	Plenary Where applicable, the Committee with powers over the matter	Plenary Where applicable, the Committee with powers over the matter
Interpellations before the Government	Plenary	Plenary
Hearings with the Prime Minister after each European Council	Plenary
Hearings with the Government	Plenary Joint Committee for the EU Where applicable, the Committee with powers over the matter	Plenary Joint Committee for the EU Where applicable, the Committee with powers over the matter
Calling on the Government to take a given course of action	Plenary Joint Committee for the EU Where applicable, the Committee with powers over the matter	Plenary Joint Committee for the EU Where applicable, the Committee with powers over the matter
Spoken questions	Plenary Joint Committee for the EU Where applicable, the Committee with powers over the matter	Plenary Joint Committee for the EU Where applicable, the Committee with powers over the matter